Apostolic Trip of the Holy Father Francis to Myanmar and Bangladesh (26 November – 2 December 2017) – The Pope's words on the flight from Rome to Yangon

On the aircraft that carried him to Myanmar, Pope Francis gave his customary greetings to the media workers accompanying him on the papal flight.

Introduced by a presentation by the director of the Holy See Press Office, Greg Burke, the Pope addressed the following words to the journalists present:

Words of the Holy Father

Greg Burke

Your Holiness, good evening, or good night!

We are always grateful to have you here, today perhaps even more so, as it is already after ten thirty [in the evening]. You have spoken about a message of reconciliation, forgiveness and peace. This evening we will try to give you a little peace, we will do things quickly, so you have time to sleep. Thank you. If you would like to say something...

Pope Francis

Good night, and thank you very much for the company. Thank you for your work, which always sows great good. I wish you a good stay. They say it is too hot - I am sorry – but let it at least be fruitful.

Greetings to you.
