Holy See Press Office Communiqué

This morning, in the Old Synod Hall, an extraordinary meeting took place, chaired by His Eminence Cardinal Secretary of State Pietro Parolin, in the presence of the heads of the Dicasteries and entities of the Holy See.

The aim of the meeting was to consider the second phase of the Covid-19 emergency, to begin this coming May.

The efforts made by the Holy See to face the crisis in a sustainable way were highlighted. In addition, it was decided to gradually reactivate ordinary services, while keeping in place the health precautions intended to limit the contagion, so as to ensure service to the Holy Father and to the Universal Church.
