Appeal for the Collection for Christians in the Holy Land

Letter from the Prefect of the Dicastery for the Eastern Churches

The “pro Terra Sancta” Collection

Summary Report of the Custody of the Holy Land on the projects and works realized with the 2022/2023 Collection

Letter from the Prefect of the Dicastery for the Eastern Churches

Ash Wednesday, 2024

Dear brother in the episcopate,

“And now our feet are standing within your gates, Jerusalem.” How we wish the words of Psalm 122 were a description of what is happening in our days! Instead, many pilgrims remain far from the city of their dreams, while the inhabitants of the Holy Land continue to suffer and die. Throughout the world, the roar of weapons that bring death resounds. And there is no respite, even though God has assured us that “For every boot that tramped in battle, every cloak rolled in blood, will be burned as fuel for fire.” This is the prophecy of Isaiah (9:4). We have seen and continue to see men in arms shedding blood and killing life itself. Yet, in the next verse, Isaiah announced that “A child is born to us [...] the Prince of Peace.” For us Christians, that child is Jesus Christ, God made man, God with us.

Pope Francis has never ceased to express his closeness to all those affected by the conflict in the Holy Land and to cry out to men and women of goodwill, urging them to work for peace and to respect the sanctity of every human person. In recent times he expressed these words: “I am close to all those who are suffering, Palestinians and Israelis. I embrace them in this dark moment. And I pray for them a lot. May the weapons be stopped: they will never lead to peace, and may the conflict not widen! Enough! Enough, brothers, enough!" (Angelus, November 12, 2023).

The pilgrimage to Jerusalem has a history as ancient as Christianity itself, and not only for Catholics. This is made possible even today by the generous work of the Franciscans of the Custody of the Holy Land and the Eastern Churches present there. They maintain and animate the holy sites, a living memory of Jesus' steps and actions, a visible testimony of the God who made Himself flesh and blood to save us, mud animated by the breath of His Spirit. Thanks to their dedicated work in those places, we continue to pray unceasingly for the whole world.

Since its origins, the Church has continuously and passionately cultivated solidarity with the Church of Jerusalem. In the late medieval and modern era, the Supreme Pontiffs intervened several times to promote and regulate the Collection for the Holy Land. The Collection was last reformed by Pope Saint Paul VI in 1974 with his Apostolic Exhortation 'Nobis in Animo'. Pope Francis has also often emphasized the importance of this ecclesial gesture.

Dear brothers and sisters, this is not merely a pious tradition for a few. Everywhere in the Catholic Church, the faithful have an obligation to offer their contribution to the so-called Pontifical Collection for the Holy Land, which is collected on Good Friday or, in some regions, on another day of the year. We will do the Collection again this year, hoping in your particular generosity.

And do you know why? Because, apart from the custody of the Holy Places that saw Jesus, there are still Christians living and operating in the Holy Land, amid many tragedies and difficulties often caused by the selfishness of the powerful of the world. Over the centuries many died as martyrs so as not to see their Christian roots cut off. Their Churches are an integral part of the history and culture of the East.

But today, many of them cannot take it anymore, and abandon the places where their fathers and mothers prayed and witnessed the Gospel. They leave everything and flee because they see no hope. And ravenous wolves divide their spoils.

The Christians of Iraq, Syria, Lebanon, and many other lands turn to us and ask, "Help us to spread the sweet aroma of Christ" (2 Corinthians 2:15) again in the East.

I address you so that their cry does not go unheard and that the Holy Father can support the local Churches in finding new ways, opportunities for housing, work, and educational and professional training, so that they may remain and not get lost in the West, a world they don't know, which is so different from their feelings and their way of witnessing their faith. If they leave, if they leave their small businesses serving pilgrims who no longer come to Jerusalem and Palestine, the East will lose part of its soul, perhaps forever.

Make them feel the solidarity of the Church!

I express Pope Francis's gratitude to the local Churches, to the Franciscans, to the many charity volunteers, true children of peace, witnesses of the Prince of peace, and also to all of you for your prayer and your contribution for the Holy Land and for all those who dwell there.

May the Lord bless you and reward you. Thanks also to each of the Bishops who will take to heart this blessed initiative.

Thank you on behalf of those who cry and those who die because of the madness of war. Thank you especially on behalf of those who have lost their children or see them horribly mutilated. Help us to help them!

May the Lord bless you with abundant blessings and consolation.

The “pro Terra Sancta” CollectionDICASTERY FOR THE EASTERN CHURCHES*2023 A.D.*Introduction

The Collection “Pro Terra Sancta” was born out of the desire of the Popes to maintain a strong bond between the faithful across the world and the Holy Places. It is the main source of material support for Christian life in the Holy Land and a tool for the universal Church to express solidarity with the ecclesial communities of the Middle East. In recent times, Saint Paul VI gave a significant boost to supporting the Holy Land with the Apostolic Exhortation ‘Nobis in Animo’ (March 25, 1974).

Through the funds traditionally collected on Good Friday, the Franciscan Custody of the Holy Land is able to carry out the important mission to which it is called: preserving the Sacred Places, the stones of memory, and promoting the Christian presence, the living stones, through its many pastoral, educational, welfare, health and social facilities.

The territories that benefit from the Collection are Jerusalem, Palestine, Israel, Jordan, Cyprus, Syria, Lebanon, Egypt, Ethiopia, Eritrea, Turkey, Iran and Iraq.

As a rule, the Custody of the Holy Land receives 65% of the Collection, while the remaining 35% goes to the Dicastery for the Eastern Churches, which is used for the formation of candidates to priesthood, the support of clergy, educational activities, cultural formation and for subsidies to the several ecclesiastical Circumscriptions in the Middle East.

This report is a synthesis of what the Dicastery received in 2023 and how it was distributed.

Donations received in 2023 for the Holy Land Collection	€ 6,571,893.96

Academic, Spiritual and Human Formation of the Seminarians and Priests of the Churches under the Jurisdiction of the Dicastery for the Eastern Churches

Thanks to the Collection, contributions can be made to seminaries, religious houses of formation and cultural institutions in the relevant territories and even in Rome, supporting in various forms (scholarships, university fees and health care) young seminarians and priests, men and women religious and, depending on the funds available, some lay people. The college, which was opened five years ago to host nuns who come from various Eastern countries, this year welcomes 27 consecrated women, out of a total of 252 students, who benefit from the scholarship, and are hosted in all 7 colleges under the jurisdiction of the Dicastery.

In addition, the Dicastery contributes to the support of the Pontifical Oriental Institute, a higher academic institution with two faculties, Eastern Ecclesiastical Sciences and Eastern Canon Law, of which the Cardinal

Prefect is the Grand Chancellor, as well as to supporting the Committee for Cultural Collaboration, which develops activities in the ecumenical field.

Formation of seminarians, priests and nuns in Rome, Maintenance of Colleges, Cultural Collaboration	€ 2,376,167.17
Pontifical Oriental Institute (PIO)	€ 1,000,000.00
Total	€ 3,376,167.00

Subsidies for Educational Activities

The Patriarchal Diocese of Jerusalem, the Franciscan Custody, the Eastern Churches of the Holy Land and Religious Institutes are committed to the education of young people in the Holy Land.

One of the prestigious foundations that ensures academic formation is Bethlehem University. Almost 3,300 young people, mostly Palestinian Muslims, are trained intellectually and humanly in the hope they will engage in building a country where mutual respect reigns and where human dignity is preserved. The commitment of the De La Salle Brothers in running the university is highly appreciated.

Secretariat of Solidarity	€ 961,363.42
Schools of the Latin Patriarchate of Jerusalem	€ 824,459.43
Bethlehem University	€ 460,774.87
Total	€ 2,246,597.72

Ordinary and Extraordinary Subsidies

The Dicastery contributes to supporting the Churches under its jurisdiction with subsidies drawn from the Holy Land Collection: they contribute to the daily life of all the Circumscriptions.

After the earthquake of February 6 last year – which hit the northwestern regions of Syria hard, with buildings collapsing in Aleppo, Lattakia and Idlib, as well as the southern and central regions of Turkey – Syria and Turkey are recovering. The Episcopal Conference in collaboration with Caritas Turkey has already started some projects with contributions received from various benefactors, especially for the reconstruction of homes, restoration of churches and religious houses.

In Syria, the situation is much more serious, given the precarious condition of the country even before the earthquake. The Dicastery, in collaboration with the Apostolic Nunciature in Syria, made an appeal to support the population affected by the earthquake. The Emergency Committee of the Church in Syria has prepared a project to support families in difficulty to face the winter in the best possible way. The regions that will benefit from it are those of Aleppo and Lattakia. The total beneficiaries of the project are approximately 7000 people and the total budget is $1,000,000.00 for a duration of 9 to 12 months. The Dicastery, at the request of the Papal Representative in Syria, has so far transferred US$600,000.00 for this purpose.

The outbreak of the War in Gaza, after the events of October 7, paralysed the Holy Land. The lack of pilgrims and tourists has put thousands of families in difficulty. The Dicastery is following the development of the situation, demonstrating its closeness through the Apostolic Delegation in Jerusalem, the Latin Patriarchate and the Custody of the Holy Land. The Holy Father intends to carry out a project with humanitarian purposes in Gaza or the West Bank, which can help the population resume a more dignified life and create job opportunities once the war is over. This project could be realised with the offerings of the faithful from all over the world who participate in the Collection for the Holy Land.

Summary Report of the Custody of the Holy Land on the projects and works realized with the 2022/2023 Collection

Custody of the Holy Land

Order of Friars Minor

Summary Report 2022/2023

For many centuries the Custody of the Holy Land has been committed to the conservation and revitalisation of the Holy Places of Christianity in the Land of Jesus and in the entire Middle East. Among the various objectives of the Franciscan mission we mention the support and development of the Christian minority that dwells in this region, the conservation and valorisation of the archaeological zones and of the sanctuaries, interventions in cases of emergency, the liturgy in the Holy Places, the apostolic works and the assistance to pilgrims. For the biennium 2022/2023 the Franciscan presence in the Holy Land has continued to manifest itself in the projection, programming and execution of the following projects and works:

X. Works geared towards pilgrims

XI. Works geared towards the local community

XII. Rhodes

XIII. Jordan

XIV. Syria

XV. Lebanon

XVI. Egypt

XVII. Italy

XVIII. Ordinary wages of the Custody of the Holy Land

The works listed here have already been realised thanks to various kinds of economic contributions, and in the first place thanks to the Good Friday Collection, and then thanks to fundraising activities of the Franciscan Foundation for the Holy Land (FFHL) and the Association Pro Terra Sancta (PTS), but also thanks to other private and institutional donors, as well as from other entries ensuing from other activities.

We thank God that here, in Jerusalem, as well as in the rest of the world, Covid-19 has reduced to a great extent its destructive potential, and its effects do not constitute an impediment for the circulation of persons any longer. This fact brought about a progressive revival in the number of pilgrims, with a certain economical respite for the Christian families and also for the Custody. However, the recent worsening of the war between Palestine and Israel, from 7 October 2023 (in the Gaza Strip in a particular way, but with consequences in the entire West Bank and in Jerusalem, and regarding pilgrims, the entire country of Israel), has brought a sudden cancellation of all pilgrimages that were taking place or that had been planned, with the closure of all check-points with the impossibility of workers from the West Bank to enter Jerusalem, and with the difficulty for everybody to move with security in the entire territory. In spite of all this, we still continue the mission that has been entrusted to us, knowing that Divine Providence, that has willed our presence in this Land, will never cease to take care of us.

NB: In the realisation of these works, although it entails a factor of complication regarding the requests for permits, the Custody gives priority to workers coming from the West Bank, in order to offer work opportunities for Christians hailing from a territory that does not benefit from a welfare system or from social security. During these last years, these workers would have remained totally deprived of economic resources, as a result of the conflict situation and the various lockdowns.

Other complications have now been added during the recent conflict. These have been the result of the closure of the checkpoints for nearly two months. Wherever possible, the workers have been employed in the Sanctuaries and in the friaries in the West Bank.

Apartments for needy persons and for young couples

The Custody of the Holy Land is proprietor of numerous houses in which the tenants pay symbolic rents. In general, these houses are found in overcrowded areas, where different family nuclei often live in small apartments. Each year the Custody intervenes to maintain and improve the conditions of these dwellings, while at the same time it tries to create other dwellings to support the local community.

During the biennium 2022-2023 the Custody has worked on the following dwelling units:

- complete restructuring of 8 houses;

- partial restructuring of 3 houses;

- extraordinary maintenance of the facades (front walls, roofs, etc.) of 2 hosh.

- ordinary maintenance or emergency interventions in numerous houses.

§Jerusalem – Old City

The apartments in the Old City are 426, with a medium dimension that does not arrive at more than 60m².

§Jerusalem – Beit Hanina – St. James Housing Project

42 apartments divided into 3 floors of 6 building units.

Jerusalem – Beit Fage – Saint Francis Village

90 apartments divided into 4 floors of 10 building units.

§Bethlehem – Jesus the Child Housing Project

4 apartments divided into 6 floors of 2 building units.

§Bethlehem – St Catherine Housing Project

24 apartments divided into 6 floors of 2 building units.

§Bethlehem – St Francis Housing Project

20 apartments divided into 10 floors of the building.

§Ram – St. Antony Housing Project

12 apartments divided into 6 floors of the building.

§Ram – St. Paul Housing Project

10 apartments divided into 5 floors of the building.

Cultural activities

§Studium Biblicum Franciscanum (SBF) – Jerusalem

- Every year the Custody of the Holy Land supports economically the Faculty of Biblical Sciences and Archaeology of the Studium Biblicum Franciscanum in Jerusalem.

- Formation of 62 students in the biblical sciences at the Studium Biblicum Franciscanum. The students hail from various parts of the world and from poor religious provinces and dioceses. To them the Custody guarantees board and lodging plus a scholarship. They are destined to teach Holy Scripture in various countries of the world.

§Christian Media Center (CMC) – Jerusalem/nazareth

The services offered comprise:

- A Website, which is completely renewed, simplified for use and now also mobile friendly.

- Terra Sancta News, a weekly news bulletin which features faith, history and current events in the Holy Land; it is transmitted by around 35 transmitting stations in the world in 10 languages (from this year also in Chinese).

- Documentaries on social and religious themes, in various languages.

- Live transmissions of liturgical celebrations and events.

§Music Institute Magnificat – Jerusalem

- The Magnificat Institute is affiliated to the Conservatorio di Vicenza. It promotes activity of research and cultural manifestations on the local and international level.

- The Institute welcomes more than 220 students who are Christians, Muslims and Jews. They are followed by 30 professors who are also Jews, Christians and Muslims.

§Welcoming of young seminarians – Jerusalem

- Young seminarians are welcomed in the Franciscan International Seminary of Saint Saviour in Jerusalem.

- They are also welcomed in the Seminary of Ain Karem.

§Formation of young seminarians – Jerusalem

- Theological formation at the Studium Theologicum Jerosolymitanum (STJ) of 31 young seminarians coming from various Provinces of the Order of Friars Minor.

- Formation of around 60 young men from the aspirancy to specialised studies.

Works/projects supported by Pro Terra Sancta

Jerusalem

§Support and Works of Christian Charity

7) Franciscan Sisters School (Jericho): the school falls under the care of the Franciscan Missionary Sisters of the Immaculate Heart of Mary. It is one of the most frequented schools of the city of Jericho. Today it welcomes more than 500 male and female children (from 4 to 14 years of age), who attend the kindergarten, the elementary school and the secondary school. The children of the kindergarten and elementary school attend mixed classes, while the secondary school is open only for female pupils.

Description of the Project

ProTS has supported the school, which falls under the care of three Sisters and a Staff of around 42 persons, with the restructuring of the external games area of the school.

Beneficiaries who have been reached

More than 500 children and adolescents from 4 to 14 years.

8) Convent of Saint Vincent De Paul (Mamilla, Jerusalem): within the Monastery of St. Vincent de Paul, 4 Sisters of Charity of Saint Vincent de Paul take care of a kindergarten and of a centre for disabled persons. The kindergarten welcomes more than 200 children aged from three to four years. The families of the children pay a school fee which is much lower than the one they would have to pay in other kindergartens in Jerusalem. They also create a lively and multicultural environment, since they represent eight different nationalities. This activity is important for the families of the surroundings since the kindergarten is open 7 days a week, respecting the Christian, Muslim and Jewish festivities. The ground floor of the Convent is the seat of the Nursing Home

Rehabilitation, a residence which welcomes around 30 persons who have physical disability and/or mental problems, plus elderly persons who cannot receive care and assistance in their families.

Description of the Project

In 2019 ProTS has restructured some areas which were in a dilapidated state within the Convent, and it has opened the Dar Mamilla Guesthouse, whose objective is not only that of welcoming visitors from all over the world, but also to help the work of the Sisters of Charity of Saint Vincent de Paul. A part of the entries of Dar Mamilla Guesthouse has always been destined to support their activity and the works of restructuring of the areas of the Convent.

Beneficiaries who have been reached

Around 200 male and female children from three months to four years of age.

Around 30 persons with physical disabilities and/or mental problems.

4 sisters and 74 members of the staff of the Convent of Saint Vincent de Paul.

9) Jerusalem African Community Center (JACC) (Jaffa Street, Jerusalem): is a centre of support and community for around 3000 immigrants who request asylum and who hail from Eritrea, Sudan and Ethiopia, among whom are many families with children, who stay in Jerusalem. The centre provides support to refugees through legal and psychological support, the organisation of courses of formation and the distribution of goods of prime necessity for those families most in need. The conditions in which the families who request asylum in Israel live are of an extreme socio-economic vulnerability, since these persons are blocked in a limbo in which their request for asylum is neither accepted nor rejected, and therefore they do not enjoy any rights or protection.

Description of the Project

ProTS supports the community of JACC for many years. It contributes to cover the salaries of the staff in the centre and it provides support in the writing and presentation of projects. In 2023 a project has been presented through the ordinary call of the Waldensian Evangelical Church, which has been approved and is in the phase of implementation for the organisation of courses of professional formation, among which there will be courses for tailoring, courses in English and Hebrew languages, acquisition of competencies (CV writing, computer, etc.) and sessions of legal assistance and psychosocial support.

Beneficiaries who have been reached

Around 3000 members of the community, principally women and children.

Around 7 members of the staff and around 100 volunteers and external collaborators.

10) Saint Louis French Hospital (New Gate, East Jerusalem): is a hospital that belongs to the Congregation of the Sisters of Saint Joseph of the Apparition. The hospital specialises in providing palliative care for terminal patients, with a total capacity of 57 beds, divided between the geriatric ward; the complicated geriatric ward; and the oncology ward. The hospital also offers treatment for persons who are HIV positive.

Description of the Project

In collaboration with the staff and the Director Alex Hadweh the project of restructuring of the hairdresser's hall has been concluded, and this service is now available to the patients of the hospital.

Beneficiaries who have been reached

More than 55 patients.

11) Notre-Dame Des Douleurs Home (Abu Dis, East Jerusalem): the Congregation of the Daughters of the Sorrowful Madonna takes care of the House Notre Dame des Douleurs, which welcomes persons coming from the margins of society. It takes care of them, and provides services, meals and recreational activities (physical exercises, walks in the garden, handicraft laboratories and social games). The majority of the guests are Palestinians. However, there are also present guests of Syrian, Lebanese and Ethiopian nationalities. Today (data of 2022), in Notre Dame Home, live 4 Sisters of the Congregation of the Daughters of the Sorrowful Madonna, who welcome around 40 guests. Besides, there is a doctor of Saint Joseph Hospital who regularly visits the Notre Dame Home once a week.

Description of the Project

In collaboration with the staff and the Director a Course for Social Health Care Assistance has been implemented, and is geared towards the workers of the structure for socio-sanitary professional formation.

Beneficiaries who have been reached

Around 40 guests.

12 workers who have benefited from the formation.

12) Latin Parish of Jerusalem (Old City, East Jerusalem) and Latin Parish of BethlehemDescription of the Project

ProTS supports poor families in situations of socio-economic difficulty through the support for the payment of rents, expenses for medical operations and medicines, and other various needs in support of family members who go through a social emergency since they are burdened with the care of elderly and disabled persons who are not self-sufficient.

Beneficiaries who have been reached

Around 50 families.

§Support PSS to children and adolescents in Jerusalem

Description of the Project

In collaboration with the Spafford Children's Center it was noted that there is a necessity to activate an integrated programme of protection of treatment of trauma; it entails a psycho-social support and help in handling of anger and stress for children, young people and parents. The programme lasts for 12 months. In Jerusalem, as a result of the dangers inherent in many quarters of East Jerusalem and because of fear experienced by families, children and adolescents often find themselves closed in for weeks at home and isolated. To this one adds the growing episodes of violence and abuses. The activities in this phase of implementation include sessions of treatment of trauma and handling of anger and stress. They are carried out within the centre itself, and within some schools of East Jerusalem.

Beneficiaries who have been reached

Around 20 families of Jerusalem and surroundings, for a total of circa 100 persons.

§Project Terra Sancta Museum

Description of the Project

Terra Sancta Museum (TSM): A Community Living Museum for Palestinian Youth: the project affronts the vulnerability of children and adolescents in the Old City of East Jerusalem, which is totally separated from its Palestinian surroundings. The objective of the project is the creation of a space where one guarantees total protection for the cultural and identity growth of Palestinian young people in East Jerusalem, who find themselves in a situation of cultural isolation. In the space of the archaeological section of the Terra Sancta Museum, and through its collections, the project develops educational activities geared towards schools, towards families and towards local young people. The project is realised in partnership with the Studium Biblicum Franciscanum and the Cultural Office for the Patrimony of the CTS.

Beneficiaries who have been reached

780 male and female children of East Jerusalem, who benefit from the socio-educational activities on cultural patrimony.

509 adults, between parents, women and families of East Jerusalem.

Sebastia Samaria

§Support to young people of Sabastia - Mosaic Centre

Description of the Project

In the absence of tourists who can be welcomed as guests in the guest-house, and with the road-blocks that prohibit people to go out of the village to look for work, the community of Sebastia, and especially the youngest age-groups of the population, are living in a situation of extreme uncertainty and vulnerability because of the war going on in Gaza and the growing violence of Israeli settlers who live in the settlements around the village. In this context, ProTS wants to offer to young people the possibility to carry out recreational and educational activities, in order to continue to hope in a future in which dialogue and coexistence will still be possible. The action foresees the organisation of a course of football training to help young people prepare themselves for sports competitions. The project is realised in partnership with the Mosaic Centre.

Beneficiaries who have been reached

Around 20 young people form the villages of Sebastia and Nisf Jubeil.

Bethany

§Bethany, House of Friendship

Description of the Project

The project foresees the formation and the conservation of the cultural patrimony, in service to the academic institutions and to the Palestinian community: this project is financed by the Cooperazione Italiana (AICS) in partnership with the Mosaic Centre, the Al Quds University, the Università degli Studi di Palermo, the Università di Torino and the Al Hana Women Association. The project has the objective of contributing to the protection and safeguarding of the cultural patrimony of Bethany in order to favour an inclusive social and economic development which can promote culture, sustainable tourism and local products.

Beneficiaries who have been reached

Around 250 male and female children of Bethany have been involved in educational activities and experimental archaeology.

Around 10 workers from Bethany are involved in activities of restoration.

Betlemme

§Centre for Listening and Orientation for job creation Pro Terra Sancta

Description of the Project

In Bethlehem there is a centre for listening and orientation for job creation in order to provide medical assistance (access to basic medical treatment, operations and hospitalisation, and specific medical treatments) as well as social assistance to the most vulnerable population of the area, in collaboration with other organisations that form part of the same network. The centre for listening employs a senior and a junior social assistant, and the requests for assistance are evaluated monthly by a predisposed committee of which one member has to be external to the organisation.

Beneficiaries who have been reached

444 persons have gone to the centre for listening and have been welcomed and their cases evaluated by the personnel of ProTS or else referred to organisations which are part of the network.

250 persons have benefited from support for medical and social assistance.

25 young people have participated in vocational training and 27 young people have been supported through the programme of orientation for work, in collaboration with 15 institutions and small and medium firms.

IX. ORDINARY WAGES OF THE CUSTODY OF THE HOLY LAND

Monthly wages of circa 1.044 employees in Israel (69%) and Palestine (31%) divided between 14 schools (63% of the total number of employees), 4 Case Nove for pilgrims (10% of the number of employees), 80 sanctuaries, 25 parishes and many other various activities.

During the COVID pandemic, the employees who have residence in Israel have been able to benefit from a form of redundancy fund (halat) until October 2021, which the State paid for them, and which corresponded to 70% of the salary. The workers from the State of Palestine, instead, were totally deprived of any welfare. For this reason the Custody has chosen to continue to pay half of the wages of the employees of the Palestinian territories who had to remain at home, and obviously 100% of the wages of those who could come to work. The Custody has also tried to have as workers in the friaries and in the works of restoration especially the Palestinian Christians hailing from the West Bank, in order to guarantee a support to their families. This choice has obviously been a burden on the economy of the Custody during a time in which there were no entries from the sanctuaries and because of the total lack of pilgrims from the end of February 2020 till April 2022.

When the pandemic emergency ended we have had one year and some months of progressive return to normality (April 2022 – 7 October 2023). With the present conflict we have once again found ourselves thrown into a situation of suffering and uncertainty, even on the economic level. During the recent conflict, the workers hailing from the West Bank who daily come to work in Jerusalem, cannot enter the checkpoint, since these have been closed by the Israeli Authorities for almost 2 months. The Custody has continued to provide equally for the payment of wages in order to support the families in a moment of general difficulty.
