Messaggio del Santo Padre ai partecipanti al XIV World Summit of Nobel Peace Laureates (Roma, 12-14 dicembre 2014)

Pubblichiamo di seguito il Messaggio che il Santo Padre Francesco ha inviato, a firma del Cardinale Segretario di Stato Pietro Parolin, ai partecipanti al XIV World Summit of Nobel Peace Laureates (Roma, 12-14 dicembre 2014):

Messaggio del Santo Padre

His Eminence Cardinal Peter Turkson

President

Pontifical Council for Justice and Peace

His Holiness Pope Francis was pleased to be informed that the XIV World Summit of Nobel Peace Laureates will take place in Rome from 12 to 14 December 2014, and he sends cordial greetings to all gathered for this occasion. "In the heart of every man and woman is the desire for a full life, including that irrepressible longing for fraternity which draws us to fellowship with others and enables us to see them not as enemies or rivals but as brothers and sisters to be accepted and embraced" (Message for the 2014 World Day of Peace. His Holiness is deeply grateful for the commitment of the Summit participants to promoting peace and fraternity among peoples, and for their efforts in finding solutions to the conflicts of our day. As this meeting honours the memory of Nelson Mandela, whose legacy of non-violence and reconciliation continues to inspire the world, Pope Francis prays that all present may be renewed and encouraged in their urgent work, and that their labours may bear an abundant harvest of peace for the world. With the assurance of his prayers for their deliberations, His Holiness willingly invokes divine blessings upon all gathered for the Summit meeting.

Cardinal Pietro Parolin

Secretary of State
