Messaggio del Cardinale Segretario di Stato a nome del Santo Padre a seguito degli attacchi terroristici a Bangkok

A seguito degli attentati terroristici che nei giorni scorsi hanno sconvolto la Thailandia, il Segretario di Stato Cardinale Pietro Parolin - a nome di Papa Francesco - ha inviato a Sua Maestà il Re Bhumibol Adulyadej il messaggio telegrafico che riportiamo di seguito:

Telegramma del Cardinale Pietro Parolin

*His Majesty
Bhumibol Adulyadej
King of Thailand
Bangkok*

His Holiness Pope Francis was deeply saddened to learn of the injury and loss of life caused by the attack at the Erawan Hindu Shrine and of the threat to life and property caused by the bombing at the Sathorn Pier. He expresses his heartfelt solidarity with Your Majesty and all those affected by these acts of violence. Mindful of the security and emergency personnel who are seeking the perpetrators of these crimes, while also assisting the injured, their families and those of the deceased, His Holiness offers the assurance of his prayers and invokes the divine blessings of peace and healing upon the Kingdom.

*Cardinal Pietro Parolin
Secretary of State*
